Report of World Food Safety Day

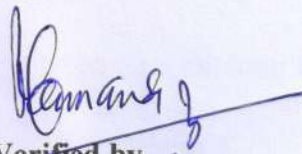

As part of World Food Safety Day, the Department of Hotel Management organized a two-day seminar on “Safer Food and Better Health” on June 7 & 8, 2022. The seminar began at 1.15 pm with welcome address delivered by Dr. Sabu Varghese, Director of HRD. The program was inaugurated by Rev. Fr. Jimmy Kunnathur, Assistant Executive Director of Naipunnya College.

For the first session, resource person, trainer and professor, Mr. John Kizhakudan spoke about the importance of food safety and health consciousness in everyday life. Mr. John Kizhakudan give a detailed informative session on food contamination, its after effects and how to avoid it. The seminar was organized for students, teachers and non-teaching staff and witnessed a participation of around 85 members from the campus community.

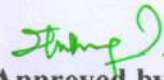

As a part of World Food Safety Day celebration, final year B.Sc. HMCA students came together to built a food pyramid display in the Department of Hotel Management. The day was also marked by an awareness class on safe food and better health by Health Inspector Sri. Sasi K S. The event was successfully accomplished and received excellent feedback from all attendees.
