Summary

Overall, the feedback from students suggests that the teaching experience is positive and satisfactory. The students appreciate active participation and lively classes, as well as the inclusion of extra activities and games. They also express a desire for faster coverage of course material to ensure better understanding. Students suggest incorporating internships, conducting programs to improve skills and employment opportunities, and taking student feedback seriously for improving the learning experience. Some students emphasize the need for a friendly relationship between teachers and students, more freedom, and breaks during classes. Students also mention the importance of utilizing advanced ICT tools for better engagement. Overall, the teaching methods are commended, but some students mention the need for better graphics, visual media, and two-way interactions in the classroom.
