

Report on 'JEEVANAM'

"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy".

Martin Luther King, Jr.

During the pandemic time of Covid 19, it was our social responsibility to support the auto drivers and Headload workers of our neighbourhood. Naipunnya in association with SARATHI organised 'JEEVANAM' - lending hands to the Auto drivers and Head load workers on 04/08/2021 (Wednesday) at 4.00pm at Saarang.

SARATHI is a voluntary organization under Justice, Peace and Development Commission of Kerala Catholic Bishops' Council, which aims at the integral development of the taxi and auto drivers in Kerala. It is an NGO involved in the life situations of taxi and auto drivers in order to make them promoters of justice, peace and development in the society.

As part of the programme we have invited 25 auto drivers and headload workers of neighbourhood and provided financial assistance which help them to meet some expenses in this difficult time.

The programme begun by seeking God Almighty's blessings. Rev.Fr.Jose Karachira, Campus Minister has lead the prayer. Ms.Reni.V.Kalayil, Outreach Coordinator of NIMIT was the master of ceremony of JEEVANAM. Welcome address has been done by Dr. Sabu Varghese, Director HRD, Nimit. Principal and Executive Director Rev.Fr.Dr.Paulachan K.J. has delivered the presidential address.

The inauguration and cake cutting has been done by Rev. Fr.Sebastian Thekkanath, Director of SARATHI. After the inauguration he has delivered a speech on the services provided by the auto drivers and headload workers and also briefed the difficulties faced by them during this hectic period. He also thanked and appreciated Naipunnya for extending their services to neighbourhood.

After the inauguration, Rev. Fr.Renson Thekkinezath, Asst. Executive Director, NIMIT and Dr Joy Joseph Puthussery, Dean of Studies, NIMIT has given felicitation for the programme.

JEEVANAM

The next session was the highlight of the day, gift distribution. We were able to provide a contribution of Rs.1000/- each to 25 beneficiaries including both auto drivers and headload workers of Pongam. As a total we have provided Rs.25000/-. Ms.Teresa Parackal, Vice Principal (Academics) NIMIT and Mr.Robert Fernandez, Vice Principal (Campus Management) NIMIT, have distributed the money to them.

One of the representative member from Benefited Community has delivered a reply Speech. They have expressed their gratitude towards the institution for the generous activity extended to them. Ms.Emily Ittiachan Director of Examination, NIMIT has delivered the vote of thanks.The programme concluded after the National Anthem.
