REPORT

A comprehensive Three-Day Training Programme on “Integrated Teaching and Classroom Management” was conducted from the 8th to the 10th of May, 2024, at the MBA Seminar Hall. The programme aimed to enhance the pedagogical skills and classroom management strategies of educators, with a special focus on English language teaching, emotional intelligence, and effective teaching methodologies. The programme commenced with a prayer led by Ms. Kesiya Johnson (Lab Assistant, IT Department), followed by a warm welcome address from Ms. Elsa Jose (Training Department). The inaugural message was delivered by Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K. J. (Executive Director/Principal), who highlighted the significance of integrated teaching strategies and their impact on classroom management. The Three-Day Training Programme on "Integrated Teaching and Classroom Management," provided educators with valuable insights into enhancing their teaching skills and classroom management techniques. The sessions, led by experienced faculty such as Ms. Sabina George and Mr. Kattookaran Mathew Antony from the Department of English, focused on English grammar, vocabulary, and emotional intelligence in the classroom. Ms. Rajani Stanley, Head of the Training Department, delivered an insightful session on the role of emotional intelligence in fostering a positive learning environment. Additionally, sessions by Rev. Fr. Varghese Palatty and Sr. Praveena CSN covered topics like effective teaching practices and sex education. The programme fostered a holistic approach to teaching, addressing both pedagogical strategies and the emotional aspects of classroom dynamics. Participants were engaged in interactive sessions, gaining practical tools for creating a supportive and effective classroom environment. The event concluded with a certificate distribution ceremony, recognizing participants for their dedication and active involvement in the training.
