Report on One Day Training for Principals & Directors

The one-day training session for Principals of Higher Education organized by IQAC in collaboration with the Association of the Kerala Catholic Unaided Arts and Science Colleges (AKCUASC) focusing on "Strategies for Effective Leadership and Institutional Excellence," was held on 19 August 2023. This one-day training program aims to equip principals of higher education with essential strategies and skills to lead their institutions effectively and foster a culture of excellence. The session commenced at 10.30 a.m. with the registration. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Gabriel Simon Thattil (Head, Department of Commerce, School of Business Management and Legal Studies, University of Kerala). Rev. Fr. Antony Arackal (Secretary, KCBC Education Commission) delivered the keynote address. The one-day training program for principals of higher education equipped the participants with knowledge and skills necessary to excel in their leadership roles and promote institutional excellence. The address was about critical aspects of leadership, communication, change management, and problem-solving. This training program empowers principals to lead with confidence and contribute to the success of their institutions in an ever-changing educational landscape. There were 40 participants. The 3rd annual board meeting of AKCUASC was also held on the same day after lunch. The Meeting was concluded by 4.00 p.m.
