Inclusive Imagination Integrating knowledge for a Sustainable Digital Future

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Deepak P.

About the Speaker:

Dr. Deepak P. is an Associate Professor of Computer Science at Queen's University Belfast (UK), and an adjunct faculty of Computer Science at IIT Madras. He is an expert in AI and has authored 100+ publications, and three books. He regularly writes in popular media about topics in the intersection of technology and politics. His current research interests are in the political economy of AI, and responsible AI, construed in the broadest sense. He is a Senior Member of the IEEE and the ACM, and is a recipient of INAE Young Engineer Award.

In 2025, he received the Kerala Sahitya Academy Award in the category "Scholarly Literature" for his book Nirmithabuddhikalathe Samoohika Rashtreeya Jeevitham. He also got the Kerala Science Literature Prize for Popular Science awarded by Kerala State Council for Science, Technology and Environment (KSCSTE) in February 2025.

Overview Theme:

"Inclusive Imagination: Integrating Knowledge for a Sustainable Digital Future" highlights the need to bring diverse perspectives, disciplines, and communities together to shape technology that benefits all. The theme emphasizes collaboration, ethical innovation, and equitable access to digital resources. By uniting scientific, social, and creative knowledge, it envisions a future where digital progress supports sustainability, inclusivity, and shared growth for everyone.
